IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
CR. WJC No.39 of 2008
SUMITRA DEVI
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR & ORS

03/ 04-12-2008 In the instant writ application the petitioner prays for two reliefs.

Firstly to provide protection to her life and property and subsequently to restrain the local Police from implicating her son in false cases.

The petitioner submits that she is Mukhiya and on account of political rivalry her son has been made accused in a number of cases in connivance with accused persons. So far as the second grievance is concerned, learned counsel for the State has filed counter affidavit annexing Annexure-A to the application. From Annexure-A it would appear that the son of the petitioner is involved in 9 serious cases. The S.D.P.O. who enquired into the matter found that the petitioner's son has not been implicated on account of any malice.

It goes without saying that no one should suffer from on account of misdeeds of his children if a person is himself not involved in the act.

In the circumstances, it would be open to the petitioner to file appropriate representation, if she fears danger to her life.

With the aforesaid observation this application is disposed of.
